“NASCAR’s Little Bristol”

- Portland remains only one of two clubs to attract more than 500 cars to a Western Grand National event in the past 10 years.
- Portland’s facility is known as one of the best in QMA and is part of R9 - one of the largest and most competitive Regions in QMA. (Average R9 race attracts 170+ cars.)
- Portland 2012: Epic Quarter Midget Racing!

2012 will mark the 57th year PQMRA has raced at Alpenrose Dairy. In honor of Alpenrose’s dedication to quarter midgets, each fast time winner will be awarded a stainless steel milk can, similar to the concept shown.

PQMRA is excited to build in an element of creativity with our awards while celebrating Alpenrose Dairy at the same time!
